Miscellaneous.

HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE-NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows:

It originated in Prussia, where the science of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practised, but owing to the poverty of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintance, in which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible in eradicating disease from the eyes.

He immigrated to this country, bringing his discovery with him, but seems to have been indifferent to the propriety of giving it general and wide-spread circulation, and, as previously in his native country, seemed only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors.

The present proprietor was one of those neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy, and, after ineffectual efforts to persuade the inventor to more widely disseminate the knowledge of its virtues, finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation.

And now, while he does not deny that he hopes and expects to make money by its sale, he must yet lay claim to a desire to benefit his fellows by presenting to them a remedy which does and will cure where medical science and all experience have failed.

He wishes it to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye, whether of recent or long standing; but its greatest power is exhibited when it is applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing, which have resisted every other attempt to cure them, and which have been given up as hopeless and past being cured or relieved.

He asks those afflicted in this way to give it a trial, and so confident is he of its [illegible] that he instructs all his agents TO REFUND THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE.

It has, within the past year, cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS, INFLAMMATION, &c., of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING, evidence of which fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county:

ALEXANDER L. WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years standing. Had been treated by eminent physicians during all that time without effect.

Mrs. MONTGOMERY, of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years. For one year they were so bad that she could not work. Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

E. B. MOORE, of the firm of Moore, Garst & [illegible], of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years.

NATHANIEL BELL, of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes—a bad case—for over fifteen years.

ROBERT RAMPEY and W. D. PORTER, of Harrisburg; JOHN M. HOLLOWAY, of Linn County; G. R. WARD, of Lane County, were all afflicted, more or less severely, with diseased eyes, and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated, which may be seen at the proprietor's office in Harrisburg.

Washburne on Grant.

E. B. Washburne, M. C. from Illinois, is considered the inside friend of General Grant, and in a speech in that State, delivered October 4th, he said:

"Many people had looked upon General Grant as they would upon a civilian and a politician, and even a candidate for civil office; they would seem to demand that he should make known his political views on the hustings or through the newspapers, with all the arts of the common demagogue. The public had no more right to expect General Grant to speak out than they had to expect General Sherman, General Meade, General Sheridan or General Thomas to make public their political views. The General was not in the habit of proclaiming himself to the world by words, but like a wise man, had always made his record through his acts. Though not speaking for the public, no man was more frank in expressing his views on all public matters. He was raised in a Whig school of politics. His venerable father, so well known in Galena, was always an active and influential member of the old Whig party, and after it went out of existence, of the Republican party. The General was always a Whig, so far as he was a politician at all, and never had any part, or had any sympathy with the so-called Democratic party. He states this as a fact. Had General Grant been a member of the Democratic party, he would have been in the same position as he now is, and the same that all the most loyal and patriotic men who were in the party now occupy.

Though not a voter in Illinois in 1860, yet, after Mr. Lincoln's administration commenced, and after the firing upon Sumter, there was no man who gave a more earnest support to that administration. General Grant was among the first to comprehend the results that would grow out of the rebellion, and the country will not forget that as early as 1863 he wrote a letter saying, that as he was for peace, he did not wish to see it established until slavery was wiped out.

In 1864 he was profoundly anxious for the reelection of Mr. Lincoln, and no man more fully comprehended the great fact that upon his reelection to the Presidency hung the [illegible] of our cause and the suppression of the rebellion. He so far departed from his usual course in such matters as to write and permit the publication of the letter, in which he emphatically summed up the whole question. The letter was published by hundreds of thousands by the Republican Congressional Committee, and exerted a great influence in the country. He was openly and strongly for both the Constitutional Amendments, and he hailed the Reconstruction Act of the Thirty-ninth Congress as a solution of our difficulty; he entered upon the discharge of his duties under that act with real vigilance and fidelity.

Sympathizing with Congress in its action, and appreciating the importance of its being in session, he urged and advised such action as would secure an extra session, if necessary. When that session came, he expressed his most serious fears of the effect of a long adjournment, and, with far-reaching sagacity, anticipated the present state of things that had occurred. He used all his influence with Senators to have [illegible] the House provision of the amended bill, requiring the consent of the Senate to the removal of the district commanders. Favoring reconstruction, no effort of his has been wanting to [illegible] enforcement in their letter and spirit, to the end that the Union might be speedily and [illegible] restored.

He believes that [illegible] is to be [illegible] to colored people and loyal white people in all States, [illegible] reconstruction acts having [illegible] equality [illegible] the States lately in rebellion, he believes [illegible] that [illegible] should be [illegible] any class of persons in any of the States. His sympathies, his convictions, and his [illegible] now, as they always have [illegible], with the [illegible] and loyal people that carried the [illegible] through the war.

He is in favor of upholding the honor and credit of the National Government, and holds that all our obligations must be discharged in conformity to the terms on which they were contracted. He thinks that there should be exercised by Congress and by all the departments of the government a more rigid and searching economy in the expenditures of the public money, and wherever he has had control he has struck off every [illegible] expense and reformed every abuse.

General Grant accepted at the present time the position of Secretary of War ad interim in the Cabinet of Mr. Johnson. His [illegible] that position had been the subject of a great deal of comment; it excited the fears of many good, loyal men; it evoked the denunciation of his enemies, and brought [illegible] to his friends. He accepted that position, not, as has been alleged, in obedience to the command of his superior officer, but from a stern sense of duty to his country. The President had [illegible] to remove the Secretary of War at all hazards, and without any excuse or justification. The President thought to relieve himself from the odium of Stanton's removal, and draw attention from that action by offering the place to General Grant. What was to be done? Should General Grant step into the shoes of Mr. Stanton, and wield all the legitimate power of the Department in aid of reconstruction and in support of district commanders, in the management of the Indian war and supervision of war contracts, should he be there to resist the raid of thieves and plunderers, and war claim agents, whom Stanton had held at bay, and who were waiting to thrust their arms into the treasury to filch untold millions of public money, or should he refuse and permit that most important position to be filled by a Copperhead and Johnson man, who would hinder reconstruction; who would demoralize the army; who would sanction fraudulent and bogus claims of rebels, and bring reproach generally upon the public service.

Gen. Grant did not, therefore, hesitate to accept the position and all its responsibilities, and his action had the consent [illegible] of Mr. Stanton. Indeed, no steps were taken in that whole business except upon a full consultation and understanding between these two distinguished men. Under such circumstances, the loyal men of the country would have had good cause to censure Gen. Grant had he refused the position. The very men who had censured him most for taking it would now have been censuring him for not taking it. They would have said that, professing to be in sympathy with the loyal men and in favor of a construction, he shrank from the responsibilities of the place offered to him, in which he could have been of inestimable service to the country, and by such refusal the War Department went into the hands of an enemy; but the General wants no other vindication for his action than will be furnished by his record, when it shall see light, and by his official acts. He can afford to wait."

In conclusion, Mr. Washburne said he was not speaking of General Grant as a candidate for the Presidency, as he had no right to speak for him in that regard. He had spoken as he had because so many of his fellow citizens had asked him in relation to the position the General occupied on questions of the most overwhelming public importance, and what were his views, [illegible] and convictions touching the matters in which all good citizens felt so deep an interest.

The following interesting item is from a friend in Crescent City, under date of Oct. 30th. The point where the difficulty occurred is on the Klamath river, about twenty miles from its mouth: "In all probability we are likely to have some trouble with the Klamath Indians. Wm. McGarvey bought A. Snider's trading post at the Klamath Bluff, located at Peckwan, about two months ago; and week before last McGarvey dispatched a boat with five Indians to get a load of flour at this place, and in going out of the river the boat was capsized, and the five Indians drowned. Their bodies have not yet been found. Their relatives (who are the Coytops and Hackwans), demand about six thousand dollars pay for them; and it is pay or fight. McGarvey sent up here for assistance, and on receipt of the demand, Capt. Appleton sent Lieut. Broom down with twenty-five men; also Bryson and Tucker accompanied the party. In the meantime, fourteen of the [illegible] Indians came down to McGarvey's assistance with Sid. Parrish. There are but five white men at Klamath Bluffs. Yesterday Lieut. Broom sent up for fifty more soldiers; don't know how it will turn out, but at any rate McGarvey will have to leave the Klamath

A FEW FACTS FROM AN EYE-WITNESS, REPLY TO THE LETTER OF GENERAL FORREST.

To the Editor of the New York Times: I notice an article from N. B. Forrest, published in many of the leading papers of the country, in which he censures a correspondent of your paper for making certain statements relative to "the Fort Pillow affair." Now, it happens, that I participated in the defence of Fort Pillow, and a [illegible] respect to the memory of the brave men who fell around me upon that occasion impels me to beg sufficient space in your columns to bear witness to the truth of many of the statements made by your correspondent, as well as to take a brief notice of the "Card from General Forrest."

This type of Southern "chivalry" has had the assurance to refer to the report of the Congressional Investigating Committee, of which Vice President Wade was the Chairman, [illegible]

[illegible] I was lying at the [illegible] I [illegible] heard shooting going on all around the fort, but this occurred in my immediate sight and [illegible].

In conclusion, I would only say that I have by no means a desire to [illegible] and a [illegible] to the public, but for the fact that I am the only surviving [illegible] of my regiment—the only [illegible] of white troops that participated in the defence of Fort Pillow—I would have remained silent [illegible].

The Daily Oregonian.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 15, 1867.

Proclamation of Thanksgiving.

Governor Woods has issued the following proclamation. It will be remembered that President Johnson some days ago published a proclamation setting apart the same day of the present month, (the 28th), as a day of thanksgiving and praise:

Gratitude becometh a people, and thanksgiving is the delight of a Christian nation. God has been good to us.

He has shielded the Republic from harm, and given us peace, health and prosperity. He maketh strong the hearts of the people, and ever defendeth the right. Let us worship Him with our whole heart, giving thanks unto His holy name for His abundant goodness and mercy to us.

Now, therefore, to the end that this be done, I, George L. Woods, Governor of Oregon, do designate and set apart Thursday, the 28th day of November, A. D. 1867, as a day of public thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God. And I call upon all the people of this State to properly observe said day, ever remembering that "righteousness exalteth a nation."

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at Salem, this 9th day of November, A. D. 1867.

GEORGE L. WOODS.
Governor of Oregon.

General Grant's Position.

Some [illegible] ago we referred to the speech made [illegible] by Congressman Washburne at Galena, (Ill.), in which a semi-official announcement of General Grant's political opinions was given. As all indications point unmistakingly toward Grant as the Republican candidate for the Presidency, we give the material portions of Washburne's speech in order that readers may see for themselves just what Grant's principles are stated to be by one of the very few men who possess his full confidence. Elsewhere in this paper the speech will be found. The relations that subsist between Grant and Washburne are well known; so there can be no doubt that the latter speaks from a full knowledge of the views of the former. As a circumstance [illegible] we subjoin a letter written by General Grant in 1863 to General [illegible], which was recently published for the first time in the Springfield (Ill.) Journal. The original of this letter is in possession of the editor of that journal:

[illegible], Miss., Aug. 13, 1863.

[illegible] Dear Sir: I send you [illegible] days [illegible] of leave, and will give you as many more [illegible] I have read your [illegible] in Illinois, and [illegible] the army or your command [illegible]

[illegible]

U. S. GRANT, Maj. Gen.

[illegible] style of writing is well known. No man has ever [illegible] At the time referred to his [illegible] there were [illegible] of the war, in [illegible] of emancipation [illegible] "working [illegible]" To [illegible] was largely due. No man has been more [illegible] by the [illegible] than he, and the [illegible] which won him their hatred [illegible] General Grant's approval.

In 1864 the total vote of Pennsylvania was [illegible] in the field [illegible] got 296,000, [illegible] leaving 20,000 Republican majority. In [illegible] the full vote of the State was again called out. It [illegible] (Republican), obtained 307,274; Clymer [illegible] (Democrat), 290,096 [illegible] of 17,178. This [illegible] was but 124,878 [illegible] of which [illegible] The vote was [illegible] of last year's and 22,374 [illegible] of 1864's. The [illegible] on the [illegible] was 46,450; on [illegible] side but 22,270. Had the full vote of the [illegible] there would have [illegible] the [illegible] Judge, as was [illegible] last [illegible] Of course the [illegible]

The Democrats [illegible] will become [illegible] to [illegible] They did not like him [illegible] in the Valley of the Shenandoah. When he was about Richmond they were in bad humor with all he did. At New Orleans he [illegible] Now, his progress through the [illegible] him by [illegible] of his fallen [illegible] with the [illegible] indignation. Well, Sheridan can afford to let them growl; for he has won a place in the hearts of all loyal men, and in the history of the country, for all time, which may well content the highest and best ambition.

As [illegible] of Union men were slaughtered by [illegible] the Democrats sympathizing with [illegible] and [illegible] them in the bloody work. Now, [illegible] Democrats ask Union men to [illegible] into power that they may reconstruct the [illegible] to their [illegible]. The thought of such a condition is enough to disturb the repose of the patriot martyrs.

There are some people who are troubled about the war debt and taxes. How would it do to confiscate a share of the property of the men who forced the war upon us, and so lighten the taxes of those who were compelled to fight it out? Johnson, even after he became President, said this ought to be done.

The publication of the Owyhee Bullion has been discontinued. It is said that the paper will be revived at Boise City. It has been as Democratic as anything published outside of the "Confederacy" since 1864.

Grundy county, Iowa, cast 2,860 Republican votes to 8 Copperhead votes in the late election. That county is fairly entitled to all the banners in the United States.

Another Oration by A. Johnson.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The Johnson demonstration was an enthusiastic affair. About five thousand persons participated, with several bands and a large display of torches and transparencies. Col. O'Byrne, a federal officeholder of the District of Columbia, read a brief address. The President read a reply almost equally brief. The only distinguished guests present were the Secretary of the Treasury and Attorney General Stanberry. The latter was called for after the President's speech, but did not respond. The President, after returning thanks for the compliment, said he was gratified and surprised at the result of the election. He always had confidence in the people. Although sometimes misled by lying prophets, in the end they are always right. In the gloomiest hours of the Republic, when the Constitution was in the utmost peril, he was still hopeful, in the belief that the people would come to the rescue. The remedy must come from the people themselves. They cannot repeal obnoxious laws nor remove military despotism, but they have nevertheless a sure remedy. With abiding confidence in their patriotism and integrity, he was hopeful in the end that the rod of despotism would be broken, and the heel of armed power be lifted from the necks of the people, and the principles of a violated Constitution sustained.

The case of Dr. Samuel, who was recently convicted of an attempt to commit rape upon a little girl, was brought up in Court this day and a nolle prosequi was entered, the child having confessed that she had been induced to make the statement by a woman who had a spite against the doctor.

THE WIRES BEING DOWN, we are left entirely in doubt whether the election in New York, Pennsylvania, and other States, have gone Republican or Democratic. It makes no difference, politically, how these States have gone, as long as our State is yet blessed with a Clothing House that the public can rely on, and always be suited with the best goods at the lowest prices, be it a fine Dress Suit, or a common Business Suit, a fine Silk Dress or a paper of Pins, which you wish to purchase; you will be treated equally as well, at KOHN & FISHEL'S, No. 91 Front street.

IMPORTANCE OF THE PACIFIC COAST TO WALL STREET.—Who would have thought fifteen years ago that the Pacific coast would ever hold such a check on the great Eastern centres of money as to amount to a practical control? The last year, however, has demonstrated that Wall street is largely dependent on our mining yield, and that if any considerable proportion of our usual shipments of treasure be withheld, Wall street takes a fit of "stringency" and has the next thing to a "panic" For [illegible], this coast has, the present year, sent about $8,000,000 less than during corresponding periods for the last several years. The breadstuff shipments, chiefly to New York, have drawn to this coast something like 5,000,000 more than during any former year. This makes an aggregate in our favor of about $8,000,000. This sum, which Wall street has usually had, is not by any means a trifle, and Wall street evidently feels its absence. While the whole Pacific coast is perfectly at ease as regards money matters, Wall street and all the other depositories of money are suffering from scarcity. A late financial review, published at San Francisco, remarking on this subject, says that the withholding of our usual shipments of treasure is one of the real causes for the stringency said to exist in New York. It goes on, speaking from a California point of view, as follows, "That lordly city has got in the chronic habit of regarding California as a sort of financial wet nurse, from whom the greater part of its nourishment could be regularly drawn. But the recent check upon the fountain is something so novel and unlooked for, that the overgrown baby is crying lustily for its accustomed pabulum. Our Eastern brethren have not calculated, with their usual prescience, the wondrous progress made by this country in the past two years. They have turned a deaf ear to the relations of our vast and varied resources, and disregarded all evidence upon the subject. An attempt is even now made to charge the stringency of their money market to the withdrawal of funds to meet Western grain bills; but it is obvious at a glance, that in place of the money they have the grain and flour, the prices of which have greatly advanced since purchase, and they are steadily, even rapidly replacing that money, with profits added, by the sale of those products. The cry of "stringency," on that account, is therefore absurd and untenable. The withholding of the expected $8,000,000 from California, and a determ[illegible] to force Mr. McCulloch into an additional expan[illegible] of the currency, to tide over vast speculations, are the real causes at work in New York. Wall street is a great institution, but does not yet control 'all out of doors.' New York is a thriving village, but is not yet mistress of the Pacific coast."

FROM HILLSBORO.—A friend sends us the subjoined items from Hill[illegible]: The horse stolen a few nights since from the stable of Mr. Preston Jackson, has been recovered and is now in [illegible] of Mr. Jackson. The thief who goes under the name of Tobias traded him at McMinnville to a Mr. Hembree, for a small white American mule, receiving $60, by way of boot. Tobias then went on southward. Mr. Hembree and the Sheriff of [illegible] county are following him being only one day behind. There is little doubt but that they will overtake and bring him back. ....The man, P. P. Kingston, who was taken from Portland to Hillsboro a few days since, and tried on a charge of larceny, has been acquitted by Justice Westfall. In justice to Kingston it should be stated that it appeared on the trial that Kingston had left some clothing with Mr. Gibson and that they also were stolen, showing that the thief had not only victimized Gibson but Kingston also. On the charge of maliciously destroying the furniture of a [illegible] house, a jury found Kingston guilty, and he was fined $25 and costs, failing to pay which, he was sent to jail for twelve days.....The surveying party on [illegible] Central Railroad has reached Hillsboro, having [illegible] all practicable route from a point on the [illegible] Gap. Our informant says, "the road is going to be built, sure, and an agent will soon be in [illegible] to [illegible] subscriptions for the Portland [illegible]

P[illegible] FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—Up to 8 o'clock last [illegible] the following persons had secured passage for San F[illegible] steamship M[illegible] which will sail at [illegible]: D M Vaughn and child, Dr J R [illegible], Mrs L J Dunakin, Dr M B Lingo, W S Brown, Geo G[illegible], C W H Moseaver, R B Curtis, Robt Rankin, J M [illegible], R Collins, Geo Wright, J S Newell wife and 3 [illegible], D McCully, M W Emery, D O Driscol, [illegible], J O Allsop, Wm Hogan, L Peters, [illegible], John Laukin, A Rattenborn, [illegible], J Obut, Geo Dier, W H Carman, Mrs [illegible] and son (colored), Mrs Sarah J Watkins, [illegible], Andrew Funk, [illegible] Walker, Wm Fisk, wife and 3 children, A W Martin, J H Morris, H P Moryhew, A Bonas, A H Sanderson, B Sue, [illegible], Miss S Brown, Miss Sara Brown, R Branen, A B[illegible], J L Thurman, T Hopkins, O C Dustin, W M [illegible], L S Wilbur, J C McCassly, [illegible], Mrs Morg[illegible] and child, Mrs M M Nichols, Mrs Parrott, Capt J McGilvry, E H Barrows, Mrs A M Loryea and 2 children, Mrs Pal[illegible] and 2 children, Annie Gibney, Miss Mary McCully, Miss Julia Demant, Miss McCully, Capt L L J[illegible], L Bonas, Louis Nigne, R Gro, E Carleton, wife and child, Miss Katie Birmingham, Mrs Mary Byers, Mrs R Wilhelm, Mrs G Roqinson and 5 children, G Robie[illegible], A Vallan, J G Hacker and 66 in the steerage.

C[illegible] COURT—SHATTUCK, JUDGE.—The following proceedings were had in the Circuit Court yesterday:

In the matter of the petition of Reuben P. Olds, for the [illegible] of Charlotte and Jane Olds, habeas corpus; demurrer to the [illegible] of Mrs. E. A. Roth, [illegible]ndent, [illegible] as to that portion setting up letters of [illegible] to the respondent. Hill for the petitioner; [illegible] Dolph & Smith for respondent.

[illegible] Grayson vs John B. Grayson; default of defendant [illegible] referred to J. F. Caples to take [illegible].

[illegible] M. Cotton vs Robert A. Cotton; default of defendant [illegible] referred to J. F. McCoy, to take testimony and report thereon.

Kuhn & Brestre D. Simon; submitted to jury with leave to return a sealed verdict and to separate.

W[illegible].—For a so[illegible] time, the dealers in breadstuffs here have been unable to get their [illegible] as rapidly as they wished. Each [illegible] and [illegible] the nearly two [illegible] has gone away [illegible] full, and had they had the freighting capacity, [illegible] they have carried. The [illegible] and Almatia were receiving freight yesterday, and there was very active competition among shippers, each one striving to get on board as much as possible. No one seemed willing to "let up;" each one [illegible] to put on board "a few more tons." Of course, when the ship gets full, all have to stop, though many of them do it with a very poor grace. There is sufficient [illegible] and flour now in store, since the Montana and Almatia are filled, to load two more such vessels, and the [illegible] to-night were there one at the dock to receive the freight. The fact is, the [illegible] now plying here are not sufficient to supply the wants of our export trade.

COX'S [illegible] MORTISER.—About the middle of last May, we published an item about an invention of Mr. [illegible] Cox, of Lane county—a mortising machine, [illegible] seemed to us to have great merit. Since that time Mr. Cox has made several important improvements which [illegible] to be of great utility. He has added a harp which [illegible] the longitudinal center of the mortise; a lever and [illegible] for fastening the [illegible] to the timber; adjustable feeding apparatus to make the chisel cut deep and light; and two other [illegible] to make the [illegible] work accurately and easily. Mr. Cox has [illegible] model, doing the smithing himself, which starts to-day per the Montana, for the patent office at W[illegible], the application for [illegible] being made [illegible] of Mr. A. M. Snyder, of this city. [illegible] which must commend itself to all [illegible], as it does much neater work than can be done with auger and chisel and with more than double the facility. There is the foundation of a fortune in it.

[illegible].—The newspaper editors of the [illegible] have a way of confounding things pertaining to the Pacific coast, which is sometimes not a little [illegible]. The Iowa Register, for instance, has the following:

Hon. Geo. E. Williams, formerly of Keokuk, but since a United States Senator of California, has recently married a lady of that State named Kate George. The papers of Oregon are full of descriptions of the wedding, from which we learn that "the bride was richly, tastefully and [illegible] adorned in splendid moire antique, and that the [illegible] was dignified without ostentation, and [illegible]." Gay, ain't it? Who wouldn't be a United States Senator and get married?

[illegible], isn't he? Who wouldn't be an editor and know all [illegible] Senators and such?

DIED.—The injuries which Mr J. Fagan received by the falling of the iron door of the core oven, at the Wil[illegible] Iron Works, on Friday, resulted fatally Wednesday night. From the time of receiving the hurt he lay in a state of utter prostration, failing to rally even under the [illegible] of the most powerful stimulants, and at a quarter [illegible] 12 o'clock Wednesday night, he died. The attending physicians had predicted this result from the first. The remains will be consigned to the grave at two o'clock this afternoon, by the members of the Fenian G[illegible] and the order of Good Templars.

CURE FOR SEA SICKNESS.—The San Francisco Bulletin gives the following cure or rather preventive of sea sickness and says that it is assured by a person who has suffered during his whole life from sea sickness while traveling on the ocean, that it is perfectly efficacious: Make a mild decoction of the bark of wild cherry, about the strength of breakfast tea, and take a wine-glass full before every meal for three days before going to sea, on the last day take a mild aperient. It is worth trying.

FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Montana will take to-day, for San Francisco, freight as follows: 12,[illegible] qr sks flour, 317 hlf sks flour, 1,316 bags wheat, 1,[illegible] boxes apples, 157 hlf bbls dried apples, 277 gunnies potatoes, 140 bbls pork, 53 hlf bbls do, 7 cases [illegible] and 128 pkges merchandise.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUSTICE.—Proceedings of Thursday, Nov. 14th.

United States vs. A. Dodge, motion for stay of execution, denied.

The Court adjourned to Thursday, the 21st inst.

CHALLENGE.—The Spartan B B Club has issued a challenge to the first nine of the Pioneers to play a match game in this city to-morrow. The game, if the challenge be accepted, will probably be played in the afternoon on the east side of the river.

YOUTHS' TEMPERANCE MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the friends of the Youths' Temperance Society held at the Methodist Church, in this city, this evening at seven o'clock. All the children, boys and girls, are invited to attend.

THE "ALMATIA."—This bark is receiving freight at [illegible] wharf. She has already on board near 600 tons, mostly produce, and to-day she will drop down to Springville for the purpose of receiving a hundred tons of wheat.

TREASURE [illegible].—Wells, Fargo & Co. received by the [illegible] last evening, $50,000 in treasure.

STATE ITEMS.

A large amount of grain is being sown in Southern Oregon.

A new paper called the Reveille is shortly to be issued at Jacksonville from the office of the defunct Press.

The upper Willamette has risen so that the steamer Fannie Patton went above Salem on Monday for the first time this fall.

Mr B F Myer, of Ashland, has been engaged with a corps of assistants in surveying the road from Jacksonville to the Southern boundary of the State. The survey is completed and the plats will soon be on file in the Clerk's office. The distances, says the Sentinel, from here to the State line are as follows: To Vandyke's, seven miles; to Phœnix, nine miles; to Tolman's, twenty and a half miles; to the Mountain House twenty-five miles; to the Toll House, twenty eight miles; to the line, thirty four and three-quarter miles. It is quite a crooked road to travel, having over one hundred and seventy angles in that distance, and those who travel it can hardly lie under the imputation of being on the "straight and broad road."

The Sentinel of the 9th relates the following particulars of a shocking accident at Jacksonville. On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. G. H. Booth, of this place, was dreadfully burned by her clothes catching fire while at work about the stove. The unfortunate lady made an unsuccessful attempt to extinguish her burning garments, and becoming frantic, rushed, screaming, into her yard and attracted the attention of some gentlemen standing at the Clerk's office, who ran to her relief and found the clothes nearly all burned off of her, and her injuries of the most terrible character. Her back was almost charred—all her person from her neck down shockingly burned—and the extent of her injuries may be realized when we state that two and a half yards of oiled silk were insufficient to cover the burns. Her husband and only child were absent at the time, and their distress on returning to find the wife and mother suffering the most intense agony, is almost beyond description. She was immediately attended by Drs. Greenman and Davis, and although receiving every possible care, she expired at half past nine this morning.

FROM IDAHO.

The Boise Statesman has the following from the Willow Creek mines:

The mines are found on Rich creek, Shasta creek and Rattlesnake Gulch, all tributaries of Willow creek, situated from eighteen to twenty-five miles from Old's Ferry, and thirty miles from Auburn.

There has been but little mining done there for want of water, but so far as they could work the prospect is good. One nugget worth $44 62 was taken out of Mr. Johnson's claims on Rattlesnake gulch, and other prospects of coarse gold have been found.

Mr. Rockfellow has been over there prospecting for quartz, and thinks he has found two ledges which will pay to work.

Provisions are cheap. Many are coming in, and not less than five hundred people will winter there.

There is one store and one saloon already going and others about to be started. Two families have taken up residence there. John F. Chord, of Payette valley, has some good claims, built him a house, and is going to winter there. A number of other houses are going up. Ditches are being cut this fall, so that next season there will be a better supply of water.

There seems to be no doubt but there will be quite a rush to that camp yet this fall, and a still greater one next spring.

BARMAN'S new Fall and Winter styles of Clothing have just arrived by the Montana, and will be opened to-day. All who have been waiting for the latest and best styles, can get them by calling at Barman's, corner of Front and Morr[illegible].

DANCING ACADEMY.—We learn from Prof. O. Cardinell that he will open a Dancing Academy on the evening of Monday, Nov. 25th, in the second story of Dr. Popplelon's new building on First street. The qualifications of the Pr[illegible] as a teacher of the "graceful art" are too well known in this city to need comment.

INSURE YOUR LIVES.—"No man knoweth the day of his death;" and precious few know in what condition they will leave their families. To provide against contingencies and to insure something left to a wife, child, or other surviving relative, get your lives insured. Apply to H. Summers, agent for the New England Mutual Life Insurance Co. Office with Dr. Chapman.

FENIAN GUARDS ATTENTION.—The Fenian Guards and the Brotherhood are hereby requested to meet at their armory this day at 1 o'clock P. M., to attend the funeral of your late comrade, Henry J Fagan. By order,
E. CAHALIN, Capt.
J. Lyons, O. S.

FUNERAL NOTICE.—The members of I. O. G. T. in the city of Portland, are requested to meet at Good Templar's Hall, at half past 1 o'clock to-day, to attend the funeral of Bro. J. H. Fagan.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—BOISE CITY, I. T.—Organized March 11th, 1867, (with circulation) under Act of Congress, approved June 3d, 1864. Authorized capital $500,000. Paid up capital, $100,000. B. M. DuRell, President. C. W. Moore, Cashier. Collections of Notes and Accounts on the principal places in Idaho Territory promptly attended to. Exchange for Coin or Currency on this Bank can be pu[illegible] of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Oregon.

GOOD FOR OREGON.—Another source of revenue to the State has been creat[illegible]. We notice several shipments of Henley's Royal Balsam to California, and as soon as the bottles can be manufactured a large order will be filled from New York. The curative properties of this medicine are appreciated abroad as well as at home. See the certificates of several prominent citizens of the State on fourth page.

DR. C. W. COOL
Has Returned to Portland, and can be found at his residence on Third St., bet. Alder and Washington.

Those who desire FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE; the nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One-half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has made application to the United States Patent Office for a patent. He has been making this style of work for the last two-and-a-half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his residence and office on Third street. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

SOMETHING NEW IN DENTAL SURGERY!
WILLIAM KOEHLER,
DENTIST.

OFFICE AND RESIDENCE REMOVED TO THE Southwest corner of Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E. J. Northrup & Co's Hardware Store.

Extracting Teeth by Dr. Richardson's apparatus, with Ether Spray, is local in its application, the tooth and surrounding parts only becoming insensible to pain. Those suffering from bad teeth can now have them removed free from pain and without the effects of inhaling chloroform, ether or nitrous oxyde (laughing gas.)

N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

DR HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.—These Bitters are universally acknowledged to be a sure preventive and cure for Fever and Ague, Flatulence, Heaviness of the Stomach, or any other like affection. Their effect upon the system is most miraculous; they give a healthy tone to the system, relieve all morbid matter, and in fact thoroughly cleanse the system of all impurities. In no case has it been known to fail, but on the contrary, new virtues have been found in its use. To those afflicted with any of the above ills of the body, the "Bitters" are offered as a speedy and certain cure. Try them and form your own opinion.—Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

It is a real pleasure to us to speak favorably of this article, known almost universally to be a good and safe remedy for burns and other pains of the body. It is valuable not only for colds in the winter, but for various summer complaints, and should be in every family. The casualty which demands it may come unawares.—Christian Advocate.

PAIN KILLER, taken internally, should be adulterated with milk or water, and sweetened with sugar, if desired, or made into a syrup with molasses. For a Cough and Bronchitis, a few drops on sugar, eaten, will be more effective than anything else. For Sore Throat, gargle the throat with a mixture of Pain Killer and water and the relief is immediate and cure positive.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works [illegible] in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS [illegible] effects which must be experienced or witnessed [illegible] they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

Mr Nasby Assists in the Ohio Election

Post Offis, Confedrit X Roads, (wich is in the Stait uv Kentucky), Oct 12, 1867

Feelin that the time had arrived wich wuz to decide whether 7000 degradid niggers wuz to grind 500 000 proud Caucashens into the dust, I felt that ef I shood fail in my dooty now, I shood be forever disgraced. Accordingly, I put in the elecshun day at a Dimocratic town in Ohio—the battle-field—the identikle place into which I made a speech dooring the campane

I arrived there on the mornin uv the elecshun, and found that arrangements had bin made for defeatin this most nefarious and dangerous propo sishun Paradin the streets as early 7 A M, wuz a wagon containin twenty five virgins, runin from twenty seven to forty one, the most uv em ruther wiry in texture, and over their heds wuz banners with the follerin techin inscripshuns "Father save us from Nigger Ekality!" "White hus bands or nun!" In anuther wagon wuz a collec shun uv men wich hed bin hired from the rail road, twelve miles distant, whose banners red, "Shel ignerent niggers vote beside intelligent White men?" and the follering verse

"Shel niggers black this land p[illegible]
And rule us whites up here?
Oh no my friends, we ruther guess
We ll never stand that ere

The amendment got but a very few votes in that locality The Republicans jined us in repudiatin it, mostly upon ethnologikle grounds One as serted that he hed bin in favor of emancipashen in time uv war, becos the Afrikin could thereby be indoost to fite agin their Southern masters, and it would hev the effect uv makin the drafts lighter in his township. He wuz a humanitarian likewise He opposed crooelty toward em He wept when he heard uv the massacre uv Fort Pil ler, becos in the army the nigger wuz ez much a man ez anybody, and sich wholesale slaughters tended to make calls for "500,000 more," more frekent. But, when it come to given uv em the privilege uv votin beside him, it couldent be thot uv. He could never consent that a race whose, h[illegible] was longer than th[illegible], shoud rule Amer ikey. "My God!" sed the ardent Republikin, "ef you give em the ballot, wat kin prevent em from bein Congrismen, Senators, Vice Presidents and even Presidents? I shudder when I think uv it," and he hurried in his vote.

I didn't quite see the force uv his objecshen, for it never occurred to me that bein sent to Con gris was the nateral consekence uv votin I hev voted for thirty years, at many elections four er five times, but I hev never bin to Congris Wher is the constitooency wich would elect me? But it wusn't my biznis to controvert his posishun It [illegible] no diffe. [illegible] to me wat his reason wuz for votin ez I desired him to vote.

One man wouldn't listen to me, but votid the ame[illegible]t. He hed bin a soljer, and for eleven [illegible] mths partook uv the hospitality uv the Confed. rits, at Andersonville. Escapin' he was helped to the Federl lines by a nigger, who wuz flogged almost to deth in his site, for not betrayin where he wuz hid. I mite ez well hev talked to a lamp p[illegible]. As he shoved in his ballot he remarked [illegible] about he'd rather see a nigger vote than a d[illegible]d rebel, any time. From the [illegible] ockshun uv his eye site, I [illegible] he ref[illegible] to me.

I left for home as soon as the vote wuz ecountid, and the [illegible] it was made known, only waitin till the poll book [illegible] was made out, and the judges uv [illegible] had got their names written by the [illegible] and had made their marks to em. It was [illegible] to my [illegible] I glad[illegible] over it.

Full of gladness, I entered Kentucky, and joy fully I wended my way to the Corners, I was the [illegible] joy, and my feet was [illegible] onto the [illegible]. As I walked into [illegible] they all saw in my face suthin uv [illegible].

Ben Wade—While Republicans everywhere regard the loss of Hon. B. F Wade from the Senate of the United States as the worst result of the late election in Ohio, the reverse in no manner shakes the devotion to Republicanism of Mr Wade him[illegible] In answer to a recent invitation to attend and address a Republican Mass Meeting at Cooper Institute, New York, he wrote as follows.

Jefferson, Oct. 12, 1867.

A B Sage, Esq Secretary Union Republican Committee of the City of New York—Sir Your circular of the 8th inst, is received. I regret my inability to be with you on the 15th inst as you request. For more than fourteen years Ohio has had a succession of Republican Governors, and she never will have any other Her recent nar row escape will only have the effect to s[illegible] her against future accidents. The Republicans of Ohio were never more radical, more confident of their strength, nor more resolute ly determined to carry out their principles to a final triumph than now, and, if our election could be held over again to morrow, warned of our danger, we should carry the State by more than 50,000 We certainly shall do this next Fall if we stand firmly by the great and godlike principle of equal and exact justice to all men But even defeat on such a principle is better than victory on any other, and final defeat on this principle is as impossible as that a God of justice shall [illegible] to rule the world.

Yours, with respect, B. F WADE.

THE ROYAL BALSAM!

Has now been before the public for a length of time, and wherever used is highly recom mended, never failing in a single instance to give perma nent relief when timely used and we have never known a single case of dissatisfaction, but, on the contrary, all are delighted with it and speak in the highest terms of its magical effects The astonishing efficacy of the ROYAL BALSAM, in curing the diseases for which it is recom mended entitles it to the highest rank among the list of medicines, and no family can be without it after once try ing it

☞ Read the following testimonials from some of the most prominent citizens of Oregon

MIRACULOUS CURE.

Dr. Henley—Dear Sir I feel it but a duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my wife She had been affected with a severe cough for several weeks, which had assumed a dangerous feature, for which many physicians have been trying without any material benefit and all the remedies failed to give her any relief. Without relief was got I feared for the worst, in her present condition The cough appeared to be worse at night, she could get no rest—when Mr Randall, of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam; all other remedies having failed, I con cluded to try it, and I purchased two bottles Strange to say, by the time I gave her three spoonfuls of the Bal sam she got relief, and slept a thing she had not done for three nights previous By the time she had taken one bottle the cough was checked Its effect was truly miracu lous, as the cure was effectual. Hence, I have no hesita tion in recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted and it appears astonishing to me that medicine of such great merit, and, I might say magical effect, is not more in use My candid opinion is, if persons use it once, they never be without it in the house
Vancouver, March 1, 1867 H COCHRAN

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill, July 15 1867

Dear Dr. Henley—It is with sincere gratitude I un dertake to write to you, what your Royal Balsam has done for me. For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians called the Bronchitis, and have spent a fortune to get cured, trying all the physicians and remedies I could get to no purpose. Through the influence of my neighbors (for you have a great many with them here,) I got a bot tle of your Royal Balsam and finding that it relieved me considerable I sent for a half dozen more And now af ter one month using it I am perfectly cured I gained ten pounds within a month and feel quite a different man. I send you this for publication for the benefit of humani ty that through my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been Yours truly
WILLIAM DOTY.

From Sophia M. Holman.

Dear Dr. Henley—It is my duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children Two of them had a very bad cough and cold, I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam, and gave them some at bedtime and some in the morning, and that was all that was needed to cure them I was astonished at not hearing them cough again, but so it was I find if you give it in larger doses it will make the children throw up in an instant, and I think every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house in case a child should get the croup for which it is a sure remedy, as it acts like magic on children What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease, had I had at the time some of the Royal Balsam I am confident my dear ones would be alive now I shall always recommend it to all my friends, for I consider it a blessing and Godsend to mankind
Yours truly, SOPHIA M HOLMAN

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in business and now have fifteen different kinds of Expectorants for sale But Dr Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all In fact, we sell six bottles of Royal Balsam to one of any other kind and really it seems of no use to keep any other During our experi ence we have never seen any medicine that gives the satisfaction the Royal Balsam does, as is proven by the results daily coming in from the country of old Chronic cases when nothing else would remove the dreadful cough they had I find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma We acknowledge it is a pleasure to sell medi cine that gives such universal satisfaction,
BELL & PARKER,
Druggists, Oregon City

From W. F. Barber.

Dr Henley—Dear Sir I had the Asthma for the last four years so bad that it can e nigh choking me I tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good till I was told to try some of your Royal Balsam which on several af flicted with the same disease has performed wonders I am using it now for a week and strange to say I have not experienced anything since and I really believe that I am perfectly cured anyhow I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case of a similar attack and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with the same disease
I am Yours truly
W F BARBER.

From J. H. Morril.

Dear Dr Henley—I think it but justice to you that these few lines should be made known to the public, for there is so much humbug going on in patent medicines and quack nostrums now a days that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine I was affected with what is called Bronchitis for the last thirty years I coughed and wheezed for an hour at a time I tried some of the best physicians in the Atlantic States and in this state all to no purpose I could get no relief and I really thought there was no re ief for me in this world I was induced to try a bottle of your Royal Balsam and it had a most remarkable effect on me and before I had used up four bottles the cough left me and I can talk as loud as anybody my wife and neighbors don t know what to make of it My opinion is that if they knew the value of the Royal Balsam there is not a family in the country that would be without it I think there is not a better medicine in existence for bronchitis or cough than the Royal Balsam and I conscientiously recommend to all so afflicted to give it a fair trial
I remain yours, truly,

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and fe male, are there who are suffering out a miserable exist ence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emacia ted and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitu tions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thou sands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mer cury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pre tended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific med ical measures, viz Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in ap proaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and sci entific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfacto rily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

Persons calling at Dr Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair and mutually satis factory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of case, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge
